

Contemporary artist Vaago Weiland from Mönchengladbach, Germany has been invited by San Antonio Chicano/Latino artists to be part of the artistic/cultural exchange that will take place between the US and Germany. Local curators, gallery owners, community art organizations, University of Texas at San Antonio and Our Lady of the Lake University will sponsor Mr. Weiland residency in San Antonio, TX.

The agenda, August and September 2007:

- Weiland der Heiland – 2. August 2007
Photographic series (25 photographs) curated by Arturo Almeida at the University of Texas at San Antonio - Downtown Art Gallery, in collaboration with Anna E. Link and Marc – Daniel Kress.
- All Star Series – 11. August 2007
<http://www.vaagoweiland.com/all%20star%20series/ass1.htm>
Flight Gallery – 1906 S. Flores
This series includes fourteen mixed media on canvas pieces.

In this painting cycle Weiland combines painted snap shots and holiday photographs. He has also produced scenes with the morbid aesthetics of billboards. Continually, socialistic values are pressing forward into the foreground; likewise, the five-pointed star appears in every painting, which gave its name to the cycle.

- Blue Star Contemporary Art Center – September 20, 2007
Symposium/Lecture
- Lecture and workshops – August, September 2007
SAY Sí [San Antonio Youth Yes]
- Various lectures, workshops, and screenings in conjunction with local community art organizations and University classes.